

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osgood,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kinschloe,
Cordway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

POSTMASTER'S PATRONS.

An Important Ruling as to the Privacy of the Mail.

The public will be interested in a ruling of the postoffice department at Washington on the matter of postmasters furnishing the addresses of their patrons to persons who may want them for the purpose of soliciting patronage, collecting bills and the like. The first assistant postmaster general, in his ruling on the subject, says: "The postmaster is an agent of the government, and there is no relation which the government sustains towards the people of such peculiar and confidential character as in the transmission of sealed communications. The name of the person addressed is written on the outside of the letter for the single purpose of enabling the postmaster to deliver it to the proper person. For any other purpose the postmaster is presumed to have no knowledge of the address. His knowledge is confined to the discharge of his official duties. The privacy of the service would be at an end if the postmaster could be required to disclose the name and address of his patrons, except after due judicial proceedings should have been taken. The patron of a postoffice furnishes the postmaster with his address for one purpose only, that is to secure the delivery of his mail. It would be an unwarranted act of the postmaster to betray the confidence reposed in him by furnishing the address to the very person, perhaps, whom the patron desires to avoid. I think the question of address lies between the parties themselves, and that the postmaster should not be called upon to interfere, or in other words, perform detective services for a creditor."

His Personal Experience.
Hon. James W. Husted, while serving his sixth term as Speaker of the Assembly of the State of New York, writes:

"State of New York, Assembly Chamber,
Albany, Jan. 16, 1890."

I desire once more to bear my testimony to the value of Alcock's Porous Plasters. I have used them for 25 years past, and can conscientiously commend them as the best external remedy that I have known. Years ago, when thrown from a carriage and seriously injured, I gave them a thorough trial. In a very short time the pain that I was suffering disappeared, and within a week I was entirely relieved. On another occasion, when suffering from a severe cough, which threatened pulmonary difficulties, which I was recommended to go to Florida to relieve, I determined to test the plasters again. I applied them to my chest and between the shoulder blades, and in less than a fortnight was entirely cured. On still another occasion, when suffering from an attack of rheumatism in the shoulder to such an extent that I could hardly raise my arm, I again resorted to the plasters, and within a very few days the rheumatism entirely disappeared. I have them constantly by me, whether at home or abroad. My family as well as myself have found them to be a sovereign remedy, both for external and internal troubles. I never had but one kidney difficulty in my life, and the application of the plasters cured me in a week. I desire, as I said before, to bear my testimony in a public way to their efficacy, and I know of no better way of doing it than by giving you my personal experience."

The fire hydrant at the corner of Second avenue and Eleventh street has been leaking for the past 10 days, and should be attended to as it is a great nuisance.

A down town A. P. A. political club is to be organized on Friday evening of this week which looks like opposition to the liberal republican movement even at this early stage.

The Union has been guilty of a grave oversight in failing to interview Mr. Beaumont, of Monmouth, who was in Rock Island with the excursionists from that city yesterday.

Among the excursionists who came in from Monmouth on the excursion yesterday, were John O'Neill, Daniel Stack and Mr. Lafgren, who called on a number of friends in Rock Island.

All summer the street crossing near the curb stone at the corner of Twelfth street and Second avenue has been covered with about two inches of mud. It is a shame to wade through such offal from the street when there is a good brick pavement underneath.

From the number of urgent and prayerful appeals that appear in this morning's Union, calling on the faithful to turn out tonight at the adjourned meeting to be held on the Liberal Republican reservation, it seems to be a desperate case with them about getting out a crowd. With such attractions as Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Whiskers, Big Chief, Little Chief and some others space will not permit us to mention, the house ought to be packed—and doubtless will.

Sad News.

The Rev. J. C. H. Read has, or has had two brothers in the far northwest—the Rev. I. W. Read (formerly of Rock Island), at Seattle, and the Rev. J. C. Read, pastor of the First Baptist church in East Portland. Last evening Mr. Read received a telegram from Portland conveying information that his brother J. C. had been unaccountably missing, having left his home and neglected to return. A search resulted in the finding of his clothing on the river bank—the Columbia or the Willamette, probably the first named. At the time the telegram was sent the river was being dragged for his body. Rev. J. C. Read was a frequent and expert swimmer. He had been in the habit since boyhood of being much in the river, taking long swims whenever he could do so. In his youth he used to swim the Ohio river for pastime. The probability is that when taking a swim in the Columbia river he was seized with cramps and was drowned. Mr. Read is waiting anxiously for positive information from Portland.—Moline Dispatch.
